

Dec. 19, 1967.

Mr. Weinberger:

I have been studying the WC for 1 1/2 years, I find it a fairly tale. I read all your books on the Kennedy assassination & also Rush to Judgement. I tried to figure out every angle & all that would come up
was an anti Castro-right wing plot but I guess my woman's intuition just told me to go in the opposite direction. The other day I found what I was looking for. on page 34 of the dated Sept. 29, 1967, a copy of Castro's letter to Carlos Marcello, the boss in New Orleans, as to a big apparently as soon and his deportation trial at the time of the Kennedy's death.

Witness in your book
Oswald in New Orleans
P. 140 - Dean Anderson
handled Marcello's defen-sion defense and Anderson knew Fleece
P. 321 - David Fleece was the Mafia's boss lawyer investigator.
hanging around the trial the time of Pres. K. and now Life magazine

-3-
is trying to bring in
Gov. McKeithen and D.A.
Ivan Garrison into the Cosa Nostra activities.

Take it from there.

Also on p. 386, the testimony of Allan Oak, a man told him of hearing about a contract on Kennedy offered to the Mafia but the

Minutemen picked it up.
Get a copy of Esquire,

Aug. 1967 & read the chilling story of Ivan Vegorov. He was questioned by the FBI immediately

-4-
after the Pres. death.
He lives in Upper Darby, right outside of Philadelphia at the 69th stop of the Frankford elevated.

Keep up the good work —
